Remember The Times

"Remember the Times" is the chosen theme for our '92-'93 yearbook. This theme is a reflection of past events which push each of us a step further with great optimism toward the future. This pictorial thoroughfare guides us through the times that made this a special year for us. Our reminiscing of past events can set trends for those yearbooks to follow this '93 edition.

During the past year, we have seen many changes enacted and have witnessed several historical events at Hinds AHS. We have said "hello" to new arrivals to our Hinds AHS family this year, and have waved "goodbye" to old friends. Most importantly, we have seen our peers, the foundation of dear ole AHS, come into our lives and leave within a year's time, but not before they made lasting impressions on our lives.

The year '93 has arrived, and we feel that this school year has been a positive step forward. In the end and for years to come, every student and faculty member will most definitely remember the times reflected by these photos. Hopefully, all memories will be pleasant and positive ones because these are the circumstances under which we shall "Remember the Times" at Hinds AHS.

Tacky Day.

Tacky Day.
